

“2007 - When Earth touches Heaven”

Throughout history we see patterns that occurs prior to revival or spiritual awakening. The Holy Spirit's conviction broods over the church of Jesus Christ, drawing us into deeper cleansing. As we yield to the private spotlight and repent, the Holy Spirit can take us to the next level. If we do not yield, the next season will bring sorrow and public exposure. The Body of Christ comes under God's scrutiny first. Judgement begins in the house of the Lord; then in government because "righteousness exalts a nation but sin is a disgrace to any people (Proverbs 14:34 NAS)." After these two arenas, conviction is seen in the marketplace.

With the recent heart breaking news of Ted Haggard, I believe the media will announce the next exposure to be someone in government by the early part of 2007. Following will be a known businessman or corporation being exposed for unrighteous dealings. If in fact an awakening is around the corner as I believe it is the revival pattern of cleansing and conviction will hold true.

In the years 2005 & 2006 we entered a spiritual crucible. The pressure was designed to strip away the dross and draw us deeper into humility. Chuck Pierce called 2006 the year for war. This was true on every front. All of what took place in the last two years prepped us for 2007. In '05 & '06 a sword was drawn that brought separation. At harvest time wheat begins to bow. Tares stick straight up, but wheat bows. All the while they are growing it's hard to tell the difference between the two but at harvest time it's so visible.

As we approach 2007 the crushing and pressure intensifies for spiritual house cleaning. In the past several years the Body of Christ has been under reconstruction but at the end of 2006 the Bride is stepping across a great chasm. When the clock strikes 12 midnight, we enter into 2007 with both feet firmly planted on the other side. That's if we take the leap. On the other side, we will tangibly touch pieces of heaven that were merely declarations years before.

Turn with me to Matthew the seventh chapter beginning with verse seven to a simple and well-known scripture. I believe we will find it very applicable to the season we are moving into.

"Ask and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock and it will be open to you. For everyone who asks receives and he who seeks finds and to him who knocks it will be opened. Or what man is there among you who, if his son asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent? If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!"

Resounding in my spirit for several months has been "2007 - when earth touches Heaven." A few prophecies have circulated declaring 2006 to be the year for miracles. Although I have begun to experience a few, I continue to sense that '07 is when we will experience their eruption.

In 2007 we will begin to find what we have been seeking. In 2007 doors in heaven will open as a result of the persistent knocking accomplished in 2000 to 2006. In 2007 we will experience moments and methods to walk out promises, visions and destinies. It's the season for THE MUCH MORE for those who have diligently kept on asking. It's the year for tangible manifestations of things foretold that we will find astonishing in the light of our present circumstances.

The number seven is used in the Bible about 600 times. It is the number inspired by the Holy Spirit and the number of perfection and completeness. The Hebrew word for seven is (shevah). It comes from the root (savah), to be full or to have enough. Get ready for the "MUCH MORE" that your Father who is in heaven will give you! (More about the number seven can be found in the book "Number in Scripture" by E.W. Bullinger).

In 2007 prophetic destinies for people, places and regions will come out from behind doors and secrets will be revealed. Skirts will continue to be pulled off those who did not heed the warnings given to them time and time again. Our God will not be mocked. What we sow we shall also reap.

As 2006 comes to a close, be encouraged. Make a list of all the things you've contended for and desperately need to see in 2007. I have a personal list of eleven items with five out of that list that have already come to pass in the last two weeks. I am not talking about a wish list. It's about God giving you His desire for what He has preordained. It's about what He has purposed to manifest on earth through you. Do some asking. What is going on in heaven that waits to come to earth? Do some seeking, confessing and knocking. Pray over your list each day seeking scriptures and laying your requests at the feet of Jesus in humility. Remember that He is watching over His Word to perform it.

God is going to do something in our time that we wouldn't believe even if we were told.
I am praying for you and I covet your prayers for me also.
